

DANA LAMON, J.D.

A Professional Speaker – He has presented inspirational and motivational keynotes and workshops to audiences from Southeast Asia to South Africa and throughout the United States since 1991.

The World Champion of Public Speaking - He received this recognition from Toastmasters International in 1992.

An Accredited Speaker - He was awarded this designation in 1993 by Toastmasters International for demonstrated professionalism in public speaking.

An Author - His three books to provide the reader with information, inspiration, and motivation are: The Soul's Mirror: Reflections on the Fullness of Life; The Excellence Book: 104 Principles for Living and Working; Master the Ceremonies: The Emcee's Handbook for Excellence.

An Administrative Law Judge - He has served as a judge since 1981.

A Graduate of Law School - He attended the University of Southern California from 1974 to 1977.

A Graduate of Yale University - He attended Yale from 1970 to 1974 and obtained his bachelor's degree in math.

A Blind Man - He has learned how to make each moment meaningful despite his visual impairment.

PRESENTING

MAKING THE MOMENT MEANINGFUL

Every person who is aware of his or her surroundings yearns to be significant to the world – that is, to live meaningfully. Meaningfulness is not something you seek. It is what you make.

As A Keynote (30 to 60 minutes) - a speech filled with humor and personal stories of being blind in a sighted world to entertain the audience and encourage them to make each moment of life meaningful.

As A Personal Interactive Session (2 to 6 hours) - Discussions and exercises on assessing individual life significance, discovering activities that are time wasters, and developing a plan for making each moment meaningful.

Setting Forth These Parameters:

- There is purpose in your being here and being now.
- The value of your life is most accurately measured by the impact you have on the lives of others.
- Self-development must be an ongoing process; it will allow you to adapt to your changing environment.
- Your actions, reactions, and interactions define who you are.

